HANDS OF A WARRIOR

Hands of a Warrior is a compassionate and dedicated fundraising group, founded by volunteers of the Sheppard-Pride Community Center in Andersonville, GA. Our goal is to organize events and initiatives to raise funds that will be used to meet the needs of vulnerable children and families.

Raising awareness to spark dialogue

Forging a unified and supportive community

Raising funds for victim resources

The Sheppard-Pride community center was developed by former Mayor Eddie Hill and named in honor of Mrs. Peggy Sheppard (an educator, historian, and community powerhouse), and Mrs. Willie Mae Pride (a community leader known for her commitment to the well-being of children).

ON APRIL 20, 2024
WE WILL BE JOINING HANDS WITH

100% of net proceeds from our April 2024 event will go to Called to Care, Inc. to provide resources for victims of child maltreatment

Every child deserves to grow up in a secure and loving home, yet hardships of all kinds get in the way of that happening. This can leave many children feeling hopeless and all alone as they are forced to navigate through the world of foster care and adoption. At Called to Care, it's our mission to educate and equip our community partners and volunteers to meet the needs of these vulnerable children. To date, we've helped over 18,000 thousand of children, and our work continues — not just for our community, but for the children growing up in it.

While Called to Care was first started as a reaction to great need, over the years, we have transformed our communities into proactive service to not just “fill the gaps,” but to truly anticipate family needs and meet those through community collaboration.

Today, Called to Care is working in 6 focus areas: Foster Care Awareness and Support, Adoption Awareness and Advocacy, Mission Trip Awareness and Advocacy, Trauma Informed Education, Case Worker Support Program, and Teen Mentorship Program.

THE WARRIOR CHALLENGE EVENT

APRIL 20, 2024

The Warrior Challenge will be an adrenaline-pumping fundraising event like no other, where you can channel your inner warrior for a great cause.

Participants can register to race against the clock, side-by-side in dual lanes, on the 120' NinjaNation Mobile Obstacle Course, and attempt to scale the 12' Warped Wall. NinjaNation is the leader in obstacle course events and their courses are designed by American Ninja Warrior total victory champion Geoff Britten (season 7).

Registration will also be open for an exhilarating Mud Run, which will begin and end at Turner Field. Runners will make their way up and back down the streets and muddy back roads of Andersonville in an ultimate feat of resilience and perseverance.

Also available will be an Axe Throwing event, a free-of-charge Kiddie Zone with inflatables, and a variety of food trucks.
